National Poetry Day

It is National Poetry Day on the 5th October. In school we will be celebrating poems and poets by reciting poetry and performing it. Please take this opportunity to share your favourite poem with your child. YouTube has many narrations of famous poems available to view at the click of a button!

In October we will be taking part in Black History month, where the children will learn about moments in history, achievements and contributions that black people have made.
Check out our FB page and website to see who your child is learning about.
