As we approach the last week in school, it is a time when you may consider buying gifts for staff. We are asking this year that you please do not spend a penny on us. We feel we have the best job by being able to teach your children everyday and watch them grow into special human beings. If you feel you would still like to send something in a Christmas card ^{I'M DREAMING OF A} would be lovely.

Come and join Young Voices carol singing on Thursday 21st December @ the Concourse
