Year 4 started the week with their trip to Liverpool Cathedral. Not only did the children impress their teachers with the questions they asked but the guide who showed them around commented, "the children's behaviour was excellent, they had amazing vocabulary and asked fantastic questions! He concluded by stating how he felt the future of the country was in safe hands 😊

A Week of Fun and Games 😊

This week has been action packed with competitions. On Tuesday Years 3/4 took part in Quad Kids. A special mention to Amber who got the fastest time for 400m. Also on Tuesday there was the first part of a netball competition for Year 5/6. To round off the week there was a cricket competition where the children came in 2nd place.

Oh I Do Like to be Beside the Seaside 🎵🪸
